“ASSEVERATION”

I-I/FCA/009/4

NOTICE & LAWFUL DECLARATION

In the matter of the question as to: Do Orders of the High Court have to be obeyed?

This matter being brought to the Integrity Ireland Findings Commission (‘I-IFC’) for consideration and assessment according to; (i) the Rule of Law; (ii) to existing positive (written) law; and (iii) as per the respective rights, authorities and jurisdiction granted under Irish & international law, as laid out in the I-IFC foundation publications quoted in I-I/FCA/001/3; the Integrity Ireland Association hereby finds and determines as follows:

1. S.I. No. 37/1971 - The Rules of the Superior Courts (No. 1) 1970.

"Every judgement or order made in any cause or matter requiring any person to do an act thereby ordered, shall state the time, or the time after service of the judgement or order, within which the act is to be done; and upon the copy of the judgement or order which shall be served upon the person required to obey the same, other than an order directing a mortgagor to deliver possession to a mortgagee, or an order under section 62 subsection (7) of the Registration of Title Act, 1964 , there shall be endorsed a memorandum in the words or to the effect following, viz.:—

*If you the within named A.B. neglect to obey this judgment or order by the time therein limited, you will be liable to process of execution including imprisonment for the purpose of compelling you to obey the same judgment or order."*¹

The full-form of this Asseveration No 009 establishes the lawful processes and procedures that qualify and verify the findings of the I-I Commission hereunder.

Finding / Determination:

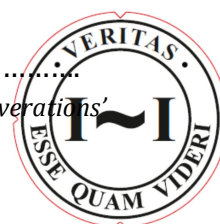

1. High Court Orders must be obeyed on pain of penalty of a fine or imprisonment.
2. “Manifestly illegal” orders from any quarter should not be obeyed.
